

I strongly suggest that the FCC does not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has worked extremely well by allowing us to eat our meals, watch television and enjoy the company of others in our home without the interference of telemarketers.

We used to get approximately 6 calls a day and now we may get one a month.

Thank you,
Jerry A. Crandall